

SITUATION IS REGARDED GRAVE

INDIANS AROUND LEECH LAKE PREPARE FOR WAR.

Send Their Squaws Away and Don War Paint—New Chief At White Earth Will Work For Peace—Gen. Bacon Sends to Fort Snelling For Reinforcements.

St. Paul, Oct. 10.—[Special].—There is little danger that the White Earth Indians will join their rebellious brethren at Leech Lake. The old chief of the White Earth Indians, White Cloud, has just died, and is succeeded by his son, Rev. Charles Wright, a civilized and Christian Indian. This new chief has been in charge of the Episcopal church at White Earth for some years. He is an unusually intelligent man, and is very popular on the reservation among both Indians and whites. Mr. Wright said when he heard of his father's death, that he would go at once to White Earth and accept his position as chief of the tribe. He said his object would be to work for the happiness and higher civilization of his tribe, and he had hopes of doing much for them. The fact that Mr. Wright will exercise all his authority and influence for peace makes it almost positive that the White Earth Indians will not take part in an uprising, no matter how far it may extend in other directions.

Minneapolis, Oct. 10.—[Special].—News is received from Walker since two this morning. Gen. Bacon evidently thinks the situation serious, as he has wired to know how many more troops could be had from Fort Snelling. Two companies of the Fourteenth Minnesota left for Bemis and Ferris this morning.

Duluth, Oct. 10.—[Special].—A battalion of the Fourteenth Minnesota left for the Leech Lake country last night. Walker, Minn., Oct. 10.—[Special].—Every white man capable of carrying arms, paraded the streets last night in anticipation of an attack by the Indians. General Bacon may go to Bear Island tomorrow and engage the hostiles in a decisive battle. Reports continue to reach Bacon that the Indians all over this section are sending squaws and children to places of safety and donning war paint. If the reports are true, Bacon says thousands of hostiles will be on the war path Thursday.

St. Paul, Oct. 10.—[Special].—A Ferris special says: A report is received here of the killing of a white man Sunday, by Indians. Armed citizens are guarding the city. A hundred and fifty Indians camped two miles from town last night. The settlers are seeking shelter in the towns along the railroad.

Walker, Minn., Oct. 10.—[Special].—At today's conference Chief Flat Mouth will ask that troops be sent away from the agency. Otherwise he and his forty bucks will join the hostiles.

Minneapolis, Minn., Oct. 10.—[Special].—Late dispatches from Ferris say the panic there is increasing. Citizens are partially unarmed and will make a feeble resistance.

Walker, Minn., Oct. 10.—[Special].—The expected early morning attack on this city did not occur. No developments in the situation since midnight. Both sides are resting, apparently waiting for the other to take the offensive. Messengers have been sent to the island to ask the hostiles if they will receive a peace delegation.

CRISIS AT VIRDEN EXPECTED.

Stockade Is Barriercd and Both Sides Are Armed.

Virden, Ill., via Girard, Ill., Oct. 10.—The Western Union telegraph office at Virden was closed all day Sunday, the Chicago & Alton officials having called their operator away, thereby shutting out the city from all communication with the outside, and in consequence the miners are expecting the crisis to occur at any time. The stockade has been prepared for every emergency. Barriercd made of heavy oak lumber, four inches thick, have been placed at the entrance used by the railroad company. Additional men have been secured from St. Louis to protect the shaft. Representatives of the State Federation of Labor were in conference Sunday with the men, and it is supposed have agreed to enter the contest as an organization in support of union labor. The men have been reinforced by delegations from other shafts. The situation is critical in the extreme. The expectation, based on the authority of F. C. Loucks, president of the company, is that the train carrying the negroes will be heavily armed. All these conditions have been thoroughly canvassed by the miners, and they have resolved to meet all contingencies.

Ask For Troops at Virden.

Springfield, Ill., Oct. 10.—Gov. Tanner Sunday received a telegram from Sheriff Davenport of Macoupin county, and conversed with the sheriff and Mr. Lukens over the telephone. They wanted him to send troops to Virden, as they feared an outbreak might occur at any time. In speaking of what was discussed the governor said: "I told Mr. Lukens that I would not send the army to assist the operators in operating their coal mines with imported labor. I said I did not propose to have a repetition of the Homestead and Pittsburg troubles on Illinois soil; that the vicious and pernicious system of importing labor into our state had to stop; that the citizens and tax-payers could perform all the labor required; that if he would promise me that there should be no importation of labor and desired to employ miners who are citizens of our state I would give him all the protection in my power under the law."

Guarding the Mine Guards. Carlinville, Ill., Oct. 10.—While the Virden strike situation seems very quiet, there is an undercurrent that may soon assume serious proportions. Sheriff Davenport fears the guards on the inside of the stockade will start the riot in order to make an excuse for the presence of troops, and he is personally guarding the guards. Lukens has a St. Louis surgeon in the stockade to patch up his men in case of trouble. His newly hired boss from Colorado was side-tracked in this city by miners, and after he learned there was a strike at Virden he declined his $70 a month job and left for his home.

Beloit, Wis., Oct. 10.—[Special].—Mrs. Frank O'Neil received word yesterday of the death of her father-in-law, Patrick O'Neil, at Escanaba, Mich. He was 75 years of age, and was an old resident of Clinton. The remains will be brought to this city today and will be buried tomorrow morning from St. Thomas church. Mrs. O'Neil, his wife, was buried in this city the 30th of last month. Mrs. O'Neil was the mother of Mrs. John T. Sweeney, of the Janesville Grand Hotel.

THE MYSTERY DEEPENS

Canton's Tragedy Still Awakens Public Interest Because Of Its Mystery.

Canton, Oct. 10.—[Special].—Anna George, accused of the murder of George Saxton, still refuses to talk. The mystery deepens. The theory that a man dressed as a woman fired the fatal shots has grown stronger.

Mrs. George was arraigned this morning, pleaded not guilty, and will be given a hearing Tuesday afternoon. The plan of the defense is to prove an alibi.

Hanna to Stay as Chairman.

Cleveland, O., Oct. 10.—Senator Hanna was asked whether it is true that he will not continue the management of the republican national committee for the coming campaign. The senator stated that he has no intention of resigning. Should, however, the senator decline to manage the president's campaign for 1900 it would not be because of any friction between the two, but because Mr. Hanna might be convinced that the chances of President McKinley would be enhanced by a new manager.

New York, Oct. 10.—The Journal's Paris correspondent thinks he has discovered a vast financial conspiracy to force the United States to assume the Philippines' debt after annexing the islands. The correspondent says a syndicate is buying up these bonds in order to squeeze the United States when annexation takes place.

LOST TERRITORY BY ARROGANCE

SPAIN FINDS POLICY OF INTIMIDATION DON'T PAY.

Might Have Retained a Foothold in the Philippines If She Had Been Modest—Now the United States Will Take the Entire Group—Evacuating West Indies.

Paris, Oct. 10.—[Special].—One result of Spain's insolent demand for the retention of all power in the Philippines has been the stiffening of the American commissioners, who now declare that the archipelago shall become the sole property of the United States. At first it was intended that only a coaling station be retained, but as Spain proposed to deny this the Americans changed their base and decided to keep the entire island of Luzon. As Spain became more imperious and dictatorial it has been finally determined that the entire group shall become a part of the American republic, and that Spain shall be expelled absolutely and forever. It will do Sagasta no good to protest. He himself is responsible for the so-called "greed" of the United States. If he had been content to act becomingly as the representative of a conquered nation the United States commissioners would have been disposed to act leniently, but his arrogant attitudes inspired hostility, and Spain is likely to be loser in consequence.

CHINESE MASONIC LODGE

It Is Now in Session At An Appleton Laundry.

Appleton, Wis., Oct. 10.—The Chinese population of Wisconsin is well represented in this city today, being in attendance upon the annual convocation of the Chinese Freemasons. The order includes in its membership most of the Celestials in this state and the meeting is being attended by knights of the square and compass from Chicago and New York, as well as by Gong Hour, of Baltimore, the Grand Master of the order in the United States. There are about fifty members here and in the number is a Chinese band from Oshkosh which has been giving concerts during the day.

The meeting is at the laundry of Sam Wah Kee, the head of the order in this state, who gave a big dinner in a Pekin at his building. All present were Chinese except one newspaper correspondent. The meal was served in courses and included a variety of American foods cooked in Chinese fashion, as well as many imported dainties which were unobtainable.

The convocation was called to order last evening and the program consisted of an address by Gong Hour, who told of the order in other states. The order is not essentially different from that of the white men, but the forms have been changed somewhat since the division into the Eastern and Western branches.

Cairo, Oct. 10.—The report that the treasure of the Khalifa, valued at $10,000,000 ($50,000,000) had been found and was being forwarded to Cairo is without foundation.

Equally baseless is the report that Gen. Kitchener will resign the Sirdarship.

HANGING UPON TENTER HOOKS

MEMBERS OF FIRST REGIMENT WAITING FOR FUTURE.

No Mustering Out Officer Or Paymaster Is In Sight—They Don't Know Whether They Are to Be Discharged Or Return to the Field—Want Uncertainty Settled.

The thirty day furlough of the members of Co. A, First Wisconsin regiment, has expired, and all members save those prevented by sickness, some half a dozen or so, have reported to Captain Hanson for duty or for muster out. A week or ten days ago it was announced that the furlough had been extended for fifteen days, but no official notice of the fact has been received by the officers. As a consequence the original orders are being carried out, and the soldiers will be quartered here at the expense of the government.

Whether or not the original purpose of the government to muster out the regiment at the close of the furlough will be carried out, no one here can tell. As yet no mustering out officer has appeared, nor does it seem probable that one will come in the near future. In the meantime the men of Co. A, are in a state of profound ignorance of their future. They may be ordered south again, or may go into camp somewhere in the north. At any rate, they are still subject to orders.

Capt. Hanson says he will quarter his men here at the expense of the government. This he can do to a certain extent. The army regulations provide for the subsistence of all soldiers in active service. Co. A is in active service provided the furlough has not been extended. At any rate the men will draw pay until mustered out. There is now due to each private as pay about $80. This amount will have to be paid them upon their discharge from the service. They are entitled to it at the present moment, and there are many inquiries as to why the paymaster does not come around with their money. None of them have had an opportunity of earning anything for their own support while on furlough, while all have been subjected to considerable expense, and have been compelled to run in debt for the necessities of life. If Uncle Sam expects cheerful service he should see to it that his soldiers are paid with more promptness.

All the men are waiting anxiously for intelligence that will settle their future. If they are to return to the field to complete their term of enlistment, they want to know it. If the government has no further need of their services, they should receive an honorable discharge, together with the pay that is due them, and be permitted to resume their peaceful avocations. The present uncertainty is irritating and demoralizing, and they want it ended by a definite announcement of the plans for their future, either a discharge from the service or orders to go into camp at such point as may be deemed most advantageous for the good of the service.

FARM BUILDINGS BURNED

Disastrous Conflagration at the Farm of William Tripp in Town of Rock.

This forenoon about 10:30 in the town of Rock, William Tripp and son, while at work in the field, saw smoke puffing from one corner of the woodshed. They at once started for home, but before reaching there the whole building was enveloped in flames which soon communicated to other buildings in close proximity, and so kept going until all the outbuildings on the place became a sheet of flames, including the tobacco shed with four acres of fine tobacco. The dwelling was saved by the combined efforts of neighbors and others that chanced to be passing, all doing what they could to stay the flames. Upon the property consumed there was no insurance, and the loss falls very heavily on Mr. and Mrs. Tripp.

COUNCIL TO MEET TONIGHT

Little Business Aside From That of a Routine Nature to Come Up.

The common council will meet in regular session this evening, but nothing of a sensational nature is on the docket outside of the regular line of business. The committee appointed to look after the different polling booths in the city have made the rounds and have made only one change. In the Second ward the building in the rear of the Windsor Hotel has been abandoned, and a small brick structure but two doors away was hired for a three year's term.

DYNAMITE GUNS.

What a British War Office Official Thinks of Them.

The war office does not appear to be violently impressed by the new dynamite guns which appear to have been so successfully used in the recent naval conflicts between America and Spain, says the London Daily Mail. A reference to the telegram printed in the Daily Mail regarding the steps the Russian government intend taking as to the adoption of the guns, a reporter had an interview with Captain Bath of the war office department to find out the attitude of the war office in the matter. It will be remembered that the telegram stated that the Russian minister of marine was considering the question of arming Russian warships with guns of a similar pattern to those used by the Americans; that a beginning would be made with four vessels, and if the results were satisfactory other ships would be provided with similar guns. In answer to a question as to the immediate intentions of the ordnance department of the war office, Captain Bath replied that the term "dynamite guns" was very vague, and might embrace ordnance of many patterns. He stated, however, that the history or "progress" of the guns was being very carefully watched, and should they be proved to be of undoubted utility Britain would be one of the first nations to adopt them. Captain Bath further remarked that there was no really reliable information as to the capabilities of the guns so far. The occasions on which they had been used by the Americans were so slight as to constitute merely preliminary experiments, and were no criterion as to their actual powers.

Use of Carrier Pigeons in War.

Pigeon fanciers have been anxiously looking forward to the time when military authorities would bring carrier pigeons into use for transmitting messages. Just why this has not been done does not appear. Surely, during the time that the cables were cut and no news was procurable, it might have been an excellent idea to furnish a number of these birds to each vessel with the view of sending home messages in the shortest possible time. The suggestion is made, however, that gallant commanders was a part of the plan. To cut off communication and then fight and take the chances is a perhaps the freedom allowed to our peculiarity of some of our bravest officers, as it were, and think that their men fight all the better when they have reason to suppose that the country is anxiously waiting for tidings from them, but will not hear unless there is some great achievement to report. However this may be, arrangements are being made to test the value of pigeons for the purpose of carrying news.

STUDENTS BACK TO DUTY AGAIN

WORK FOR THE TERM AT THE UNIVERSITY OF WISCONSIN.

New Faces From Janesville Seen in the Classes—Football Is At Present Engaging the Attention of Those Inclined to Athletics—Games in Prospect.

Madison, Wis., Oct. 10.—[Special].—The 'varsity has opened, and once more the students have settled down to the hard work which the year has before them. This year Janesville is better represented than ever before at the university. Among the new Janesville students are A. K. Wheeler, who has been out as a candidate for the foot-ball team; Fred Sutherland, Misses Edith Hayward, Virginia Hayner and Jessie Scofield.

John Fisher, who is manager of the 'varsity foot ball team, has been a very busy man of late. Last week he was in Minneapolis, arranging for the Wisconsin-Minnesota foot-ball game. Today he is in Milwaukee, arranging for the Beloit-Wisconsin game; Tuesday he will be in Chicago, to confer with Professor Stagg, of Chicago University, in regard to a reestablishment of athletic relations between the two colleges. SIR JOSHUA REYNOLD'S FETES

Dinners Where the Mind Predominated Over the Body.

One of the most interesting houses in London is said to be on the point of conversion and reconstruction. It is the house in the middle of the west side of Leicester square, where Sir John Reynolds lived from 1780 to the day of his death, says the London Telegraph. It has previously been occupied by Henry Morland, the father of the famous George Morland, and was bought by Sir Joshua for £1,650. He spent another £1,500 in additions and alterations, signalized his house-warming by a ball and set up a magnificent chariot, richly carved and gilded, to suit his new grandeur. In the dining room Sir Joshua constantly entertained all the best-known men of his time, including Dr. Johnson, Goldsmith, Garrick, Burke, Sterne, Hogarth, Wilkes, Allan Ramsay and a score of others, who formed the brilliant literary club of which the great painter was the founder. There, doubtless, in the familiar lines of the author of "Retaliation."

"When they talked of their Raphaels, Correggios and stuff. He shifted his trumpet and only took snuff."

At these dinner parties, according to Malone, though the wine and dishes were of the best, there seemed to be a tacit agreement that mind should predominate over body. The table, we are told, though set only for seven or eight, often had to accommodate double that number; there was usually a deficiency of knives, forks and glasses, and the guests had to bawl for more supplies, while the host calmly left everyone to shift for himself, though he lost not a word, if he could help it, of the conversation.

NO SIGHTING OF GIBRALTAR.

Case Where England Lost One First-Class Diplomatist.

One of the first things I did the morning after my arrival at Gibraltar was to choose a convenient point on one of the stone parapets for "taking the sun," in order to test the running of my chronometer, says the Atlantic. I had some suspicion as to the result, but was willing to be amused. A sentinel speedily informed me that no sightings were allowed to be taken on the fortification. I told him I was not taking sights on the fortification, but on the sun. But he was inexorable; the rule was that no sights of any sort could be taken without a permit. I soon learned from Mr. Sprague, the American consul, who the proper officer was to issue the permit, which I was assured would be granted without the slightest difficulty. The consul presented me to the military governor of the place, Gen. Sir Fenwick Williams of Kars. He was a man whom it was very interesting to meet. There was no need of troubling him with such a detail as that of a permit to take sights; but the consul ventured to relate my experience of the morning. He took the information in a way which showed that England, in making him a general had lost a first-class diplomatist. Instead of treating the matter seriously, he professed to be greatly amused and said it reminded him of the case of an old lady in Punch who had to pass a surveyor in the street behind a theodolite. "Please, sir, don't shoot till I get past," she begged.

SEE THAT YOUR NAME IS REGISTERED

ALL VOTERS ARE REQUIRED TO REGISTER BEFORE VOTING.

Tomorrow Is the Day Set By Law For the Work to Begin—No Elector Can Cast His Ballot Unless He Is Properly Enrolled Upon the Records.

Under the statutes of the state all those who desire to vote at the ensuing state election must be registered tomorrow. Boards of registration, which will consist of the judges and clerks of election, will meet at the several polling places from 9 o'clock in the morning until 8 o'clock in the evening. The boards will meet again on Tuesday and Wednesday next preceding the day of election.

At the first meeting of the boards they are authorized to make up their lists from the registration used at the last general election, and may scratch therefrom the names of the voters who are known to have died or moved away from the election district and may add the names of persons known to them to be electors in the district. At the second meeting of the boards, the week previous to the election, they are to revise the list, and take therefrom the name of an elector who shall be proven to their satisfaction by the oath of two electors of the district, not to be entitled to vote. The law provides that a minor, who shall become of age before the day of election is entitled to have his name placed on the registration list. It will be necessary for persons desiring to have their names placed on the lists at the second meeting of the board to appear in person and establish their right to be registered, or may make the application in writing, in the form of an affidavit.

WISCONSIN'S LUMBER CUT

Menominee Range Will Exceed Product of Any Former Year.

Marinette, Wis., Oct. 10.—[Special].—The sawing season this year on the Menominee will last as long as the river remains open. Some of the mills will probably be sawing until the last of November or the first of December.

The cut of the twenty mills this year will exceed 800,000,000 feet, which is about 70,000,000 feet more than was cut in 1897. This is due to the improved condition of the lumber market and the general prosperity of the country, which reflects itself in the demand for lumber.

The Boom company has sorted up to date over 260,000,000 feet, and by the end of the sorting season will have sent to the various mill pockets about 300,000,000 feet. The crop of logs put in last winter was large. Notwithstanding this increased cut little lumber will be left on the local docks unsold this year, and the amount to be put in this winter promises to be fully as large if not larger than last year.

JOHN MADE THEM LAUGH

Dillon's Latest Success Pleased the Janesville Audience.

John Dillon drew a good audience at the opera house on Saturday evening to see his rendering of Uncle Jolly in "Bartlett's Road to Seltzerville." The play is a new one, dealing of the adventures and misadventures of a jolly old bachelor who has suddenly taken the notion of getting married to a girl young enough to be his granddaughter, the conspiracy of poor relatives greedy for his money, to spoil the match, plots and counterplots by the score, all happily resulting. Mr. Dillon was as usual absurdly droll in his delineation of Uncle Jolly, and has lost none of his faculty of provoking laughter. He was well supported throughout, and the regret was universal that this was probably the last opportunity the Janesville public would have of witnessing this talented comedian, a footlight favorite for a full half-century.

JANESVILLES WON AGAIN

Defeated the Whitwaters at Saturday's Football Game.

The Janesville High School football players won an easy victory on Saturday over the Whitwater eleven. The score was 17 to 0, and from the start the advantage was with the home team. The visitors played an excellent, even game, but the odds were against them, and they failed to score, although several times they were dangerously near the goal. The visitors accepted their defeat gracefully, and promised to give the Janesville boys a warm reception when the return game is played at Whitwater.

Miss Kimball explained her work and told of some of the things which she hoped to accomplish by the building of this chapel, which seemed to her such a necessary addition to her work among the neglected classes.

Work on the new building will be pushed as rapidly as possible, as Miss Kimball hopes to have it completed before hard frost sets in.

A COMMENDABLE LIE.

Miss Hawley Deceived a Sick Soldier About Money Matters.

When a soldier enters the detention hospital all of his clothes are burned. One man who has been furloughed at Camp Wikoff asked yesterday for his clothing and $12 that he had left in his shirt pocket. It was all of his funds, and he relied on it to pay his fare home. He was told that his clothing had been burned and the $12 also, as no one had thought to look in the little pocket, relates the New York World. At this news the weak and miserable fellow collapsed, and it was necessary to again put him on his cot. He was lying semi-conscious, overcome with disappointment and the hopelessness of his position, when a nurse went to his bedside. "It was all a mistake about your money being burned," she said, "and here it is." With that she handed him $12. The poor fellow could not at first realize his good fortune, but finally he smiled and then fell asleep. The nurse was Miss Harriet E. Hawley, daughter of Gen. Hawley of Washington, who cast her lot in the detention hospital when help was greatly needed there. The $12 was really burned and Miss Hawley told a fib, for which she will no doubt be forgiven. She had collected the money from doctors and nurses, subscribing the most herself.

LIVELY TIME IN STATE POLITICS

NO EVIDENCE OF LETHARGY SEEN IN WISCONSIN.

All Parties Are Doing Their Best to Arouse the People—The Strife Between the Democrats and Populists—Republicans Are Confident But Working Hard.

Milwaukee, Oct. 10.—If there is political apathy in our western states the condition in Wisconsin can only be described as enthusiastic, for meetings are well attended and the people are taking a lively interest in the issues. The earnest efforts of the populists to cut into the ranks of their former consorts, the democrats, who refused their company a few weeks ago, when it was proposed to make common cause against the republicans, is an interesting feature of the campaign. The populist speakers are hammering away for dear life, as if they were in dead earnest and expected to elect Worsley—the "fog horn" voice—to the gubernatorial office. Robert Schilling, once greenbacker, now silverite, socialist, labor agitator, and reform editor, is touring the state for the Racine man, and has his ordnance trained on big game as usual. This time he is hunting democrats as well as republicans, and says one is as bad as the other, notwithstanding the fact that he has fished with the former in days past to defeat the latter.

The republicans, while confident of success without much effort, are not ignoring the enemy, and have inaugurated a campaign of thorough work from the rostrum. They are enthusiastic over the speech of Senator Spooner delivered in this city last week, which opened the campaign in the state. His arraignment of the democrats for their position upon the money question and their filibustering in congress upon the war question is one which will be difficult for democrats anywhere in the country to explain.

LEADS ALL STOVE DEALERS

E. W. Lowell the Largest Retail Stove Dealer in Wisconsin.

Lowell, the stove hustler, has a reputation second to none for carrying the best grades of stoves on the market and making the prices right. He has not been in the business thirty years without learning something about it. It is a well known fact that he is the largest retail stove dealer in Wisconsin and it will pay any person contemplating the purchasing of a stove or range to call upon him. His line includes such well known makes as Garland, Jewel, Peninsular, Radiant Home and Round Oak.

FRANCE IS WARNED.

Leading Statesman Deplores the Existing State of Affairs.

Epinal, France, Oct. 10.—Jules Me-line, premier of the French ministry preceding the present government of M. Brisson, and who presided at a banquet of the Association of Railway Employees here Saturday evening, uttered a serious warning against the agitation and unrest in France, class troubles, and strikes.

Referring to the "divided state of society, the violence of polemics, and the sectarian spirit displayed in politics," he said it was impossible to see France thus torn by factions, and devoured by political passions, while daily the principle of authority was undermined, the army was weakened, and the institutions upon which rested the security of the nation were shaken, without thinking of "that opening in the Vosges through which an invading army could pass," or without thinking of "some unforeseen temptation being offered to the foreigner."

The adversaries of France, however, had no need to declare war, said M. Me-line. They were content to await the exhaustion of France.

Will Stop at Terre Haute.

Washington, Oct. 10.—The special train which will carry the presidential party to Omaha, where they will be the guests of honor of the transmississippi exposition, left here at 9 o'clock this morning. A slight change was made tonight in the itinerary of the trip from Omaha to Chicago. The president's train will leave St. Louis at 11 o'clock on the night of Oct. 11 and proceed directly to Terre Haute, Ind., arriving there early in the morning. It will leave Terre Haute at 9:30 on the morning of the 13th for Chicago, going by way of Arcola, Decatur and Springfield.

Endeavor Convention Over.

Peoria, Ill., Oct. 10.—The twelfth annual convention of the Illinois Christian endeavor societies closed Sunday. The Rev. Francis E. Clark, D. D., of Boston, the founder and head of the organization, delivered four addresses. The new state board of directors selected Prof. A. E. McDonald of Chicago and Anna B. Felt of Galena as the new members of the executive committee. Rockford was chosen as the convention city for 1899.

Corbett Wants a Fight.

New York, Oct. 10.—James J. Corbett, ex-champion, has issued this sweeping challenge: "I hereby challenge any man in the world to meet me in a contest of limited rounds or to a finish, the fight to take place before the club offering the largest purse. I have now $2,500 in the hands of Al Smith, and my manager, George F. Considine, will deposit $2,500 more with him tomorrow."

A CERTAIN CURE FOR PILES

Safe and Effective in Every Form of This Common and Annoying Disease.

Many people suffer from piles because after trying the many lotions, salves and ointments without relief or cure, have come to the conclusion that a surgical operation is the only thing left to try, and rather than submit to the shock and risk to life of an operation, prefer to suffer on. Fortunately this is no longer necessary, the Pyramid Pile Cure, a new preparation, cures every form of piles, without pain, inconvenience or detention from business.

It is in the form of suppositories, easily applied, absolutely free from opium, cocaine, or any injurious substance whatever, and no matter how severe the pain, gives instant relief, not by deadening the nerves of the parts, but rather by its heating, soothing effect upon the congested membranes.

The Pyramid Pile Cure is the most effective, the safest and most extensively sold of any Pile Cure that has ever been placed before the public, and this reputation has been secured by reason of its extraordinary merit and the reasonable price at which it is sold, the druggists selling it at 50 cents and $1 per package, and in many cases a single package has been sufficient.

A person takes serious chances in neglecting a simple case of piles as the trouble soon becomes deep seated and chronic, and very frequently develops into fatal incurable rectal diseases, like fistula and rectal ulcers.

Any druggist will tell you the Pyramid is the safest, most satisfactory pile cure made.

The Pyramid Co., Marshall, Mich., will send to any address a treatise on cause and cure of piles, also book of testimonials.

Old Shoes.

"As easy as an old shoe," is a familiar saying," said Mr. Staybold, "and there can be no doubt that an old shoe is a mighty comfortable thing. After we have worn the new shoes, close fitting, hard and formal, how gladly we put them off, and with what joy we put on the shoes that are old and worn and familiar to the feet! Old shoes, however, are not the only thing old that we like. We like an old bed, if it is not too old, but just old enough, so that while still soft and comfortable it is also shaped somewhat to the body, which it supports at every point, yielding a degree of comfort which not the finest of beds can afford when it is new."

Eat Sunflower Seed.

The sunflower is cultivated in many European countries. In Russia the seeds are parched and eaten like peanuts in the United States. The oil is used for illuminating and often for culinary purposes.

SAYS INDIANS MUST YIELD.

Geronimo Talks of the Outbreak in Minnesota.

RESISTANCE IS IMPOSSIBLE.

Old Apache Chief Gives Wise Counsel to the Deluded Redskins—Trouble at Leech Lake Not Yet Settled—Probability of Further Fighting.

Omaha, Neb., Oct. 10.—Geronimo, the famous Apache chief, now in the Indian camp at the exposition, talked Sunday concerning the outbreak of the Minnesota Indians. Geronimo was for years one of the most troublesome Indians in the country. He is now about 70 years of age, was born in New Mexico, and as a boy was a herder for Spanish ranchers. When about 21 years old he thought he had been wronged by the whites. From that time until his final surrender to Gen. Miles in 1886 he was almost continuously on the warpath. Geronimo was told that some of the Minnesota Indians had gone to war. He said, through an interpreter: "The Minnesota Indians will see that they have made a great mistake in going on the warpath. When I say that the Minnesota Indians have made a mistake, I know whereof I speak. From long experience, both in war and peace, I know that it is better to submit to great wrongs than to fight the United States."

INDIANS STILL HOLDING OUT.

Gen. Bacon Gives Them One More Day to Yield.

Minneapolis, Minn., Oct. 10.—Late last night the men who attended the council with the Indians at the Leech Lake agency returned to Walker and reported that nothing had been accomplished. Gen. Bacon, Col. Harbach, Agent Sutherland and Marshal O'Connor were on hand, but none of the leading men of the different bands was present, nor any one who could act with authority.

The conclusion is that those who did attend were simply there to gain time, while the Indians were preparing to fight. At the close of the council, the time of which was largely taken up with addresses and protestations of peaceful inclinations on the part of the Indians, Gen. Bacon told them that he would meet them and others who might wish to be on hand for the last time today.

There are probably three times as many bucks at Bear Island now as participated in last week's fighting. Saturday scores of Indian families arrived at the agency in their canoes, claiming to be peaceful. Today every one of the bucks has disappeared. They have doubtless gone to Bear Island to help in repulsing the troops, as the Indians believe they will be able to do, when Marshal O'Connor carries out his purpose to make the arrests.

It is asserted that if the advance of the troops is delayed the Indians have agreed among themselves to attack the detachment at the agency, drive it from the reservation if possible, and keep all whites thereafter from the reservation. Men coming into Walker report that many Indians have been seen hurrying toward Bear Island and that women and children are fleeing toward the north.

MOVE ON AGENCY.

Battle with the Warring Reds Now Hourly Expected.

Walker, Minn., Oct. 10.—Trouble is looked for before night, possibly an attack on the agency. The guard around Walker is doubled.

Post trader William Aspinwall has just arrived at the agency. He said he had been secretly advised by his half-breed brother to flee. Aspinwall is a half-breed Chippewa. He sent his family to Walker. All the white women and children are removed from the agency, which is guarded by twenty-two soldiers and nine Indian policemen.

Funeral of the Battle Victims.

St. Paul, Minn., Oct. 10.—The largest and most impressive funeral that ever occurred in the northwest was that which took place Sunday afternoon at the Fort Snelling military reservation over the remains of Maj. Melville Cary Wilkinson, Sergt. Butler and Privates Olmsted, Schwallenstuecker, Ziebel and Lowe of the Third regiment, killed in the battles of Oct. 5 and 6 at Bear Island, Minn.

Settlers Flee from Home.

Perria, Minn., Oct. 10.—A report reached here of the killing of a white man near Bear Island during the day. Settlers living near the Indian reservation are seeking shelter in towns along the railroad. A band of about 150 Indians are reported camped two miles north of this town.

President Faure did not go to the races at Auteuil Sunday because he was warned there might be serious hostile demonstrations by the strikers from which police could not guarantee his safety. In the event of disturbances Brissot expressed his determination to crush all turbulence mercilessly from the outset and has planned vigorous measures should emergency arise.

Paris, Oct. 10.—The government has issued special orders to the garrisons of numerous towns near the capital to send immediately to Paris 500 infantry each. SPOONER ON THE COMING ELECTIONS.

Milwaukee Evening Wisconsin—It was a characteristically able and effective speech with which Senator Spooner opened the republican campaign in Wisconsin, at the West Side Turner Hall last night. Notwithstanding the storm, every seat in the hall was occupied. On the stage was a group of prominent republicans, including the venerable ex-Senator Sawyer, and representing all sections of the state. A number of ladies lent their presence to the occasion. The speech was serious, solid, earnest, an unanswerable setting forth of the reasons why Wisconsin should go republican again this fall. Only at rare intervals was there a stroke of humor or sentiment. It was an appeal to intelligence, not to prejudice or passion. But from first to last the speaker held the attention of every hearer. There were frequent ripples of approval as he went along, and now and again great bursts of applause that made the windows rattle, and showed the heartiness with which the people support the principles of the republican party.

The keynote of the speech was contained in the declaration that "there ought not to be any off-year in discharging the duties of citizenship." The efficacy of the republican policies of protection and honest money in dissipating the clouds of panic and wooing back prosperity was convincingly demonstrated, the hollowness of the democratic demand for the discussion of state issues in a campaign in which there are no state issues, was clearly exposed, and deserved tributes were paid to the services and characters of Gov. Scofield and President McKinley.

Let the speech be read by every voter who was not fortunate enough to hear it. A great deal depends upon voters being fully informed before they cast their ballots at the coming election.

MR. CHAFIN'S VISION

Under the head "Seein' Things," The Milwaukee Evening Wisconsin publishes the following:

E. W. Chafin, of Waukesha, the prohibition candidate for governor of Wisconsin, is speaking every night and charging the republican party with "deliberately putting a whisky plank in its platform." At Janesville, a Gazette reporter interviewed him one day this week. The "whisky plank" section of the platform is as follows:

"The republicans have a clause in their platform that was put there for no other purpose than to please the whisky loving element." Mr. Chafin then pulled from his pocket a printed copy of the republican platform. Here is the clause that I refer to," he said, "and it reads as follows: 'We believe in perfect in public affairs, separation of church and state, in free common schools, and the utmost independence of individual thought, speech and action consistent with law and the rights of others.' More particularly do I refer to the last dozen words," continued Mr. Chafin.

"The Wisconsin has been asked to state its opinion regarding this dreadful charge. To be perfectly frank, it is unable to convince itself that Mr. Chafin expects his allegation to be taken seriously. The prohibitionists, it is understood, do not drink whiskey, but it seems to the Wisconsin that a man would have to drink a great deal of whiskey to see in this republican platform plank what Candidate Chafin professes to see in it. If other men using Waukesha water were to get to 'seein' things' at the rate that Mr. Chafin has attained, the beverage would soon sell over the bar at twenty cents a glass.

Beloit Free Press—Those democrats who imagine that there will be a great falling off in the republican vote this fall because of apathy, will be disillusioned when the ballots are counted. There is not a republican in Wisconsin who does not realize that it is his duty as such to express at the polls his satisfaction of the manner in which President McKinley has fulfilled every pledge made by the party in the national platform of 1896.

No complaints are made about paying the war tax. The people now have money to pay the tax—have honest money too—while but a short time ago many of them had to live at free soup houses or starve. The republican party brought the change about.

His experience in Mexico made Joe Donnelly a gold man, but his itching for a seat in congress makes him a silver man. Milwaukee people do not want a man of this caliber for congressman, however. They will select Mr. Otjen.

In reply to the statement of J. L. Connor it may be said—but then, no reply is necessary. Mr. O'Connor was one of the cocks of the walk among the "roster roosters."

All the banks will pay your checks in gold these days if you want the "yellow boys." This is another leg cut from under the silver theorizers.

GETTING EVEN WITH HIS WIFE

Tables Turned on a "Superior" Woman by Her Husband.

From the Washington Star: One of the mildest-mannered men on earth is John Smith of Podunk, though that isn't his name or the name of his town, and he married Sallie Jones, a red-headed school-teacher, who thought she knew more in a minute than John did in thirty-seven years and five months. As the years went by John became accustomed to life with a superior woman, and the four or five times a year he got even with her in his quiet way appeared to reconcile him to the rest of the performance. The last occasion of an "evening-up" occurred four days ago. Mrs. Smith was displaying her knowledge of war history and cognate branches. "Wars," she was saying, "are commonly known among third parties by the names of the two nations involved, and it is a rather remarkable fact that the name of the losing nation precedes that of the conqueror. For example, we have the Franco-Prussian war, in which the French people came near being obliterated as a nation by the Prussians. Then the Chinese-Japanese war, in which the Chinese were utterly overthrown by the Japanese. So also the Greco-Turkish war, with the Turks conquerors at every point, and, lastly, we have the Spanish-American war, in which Spain met overwhelming defeat everywhere. Under the circumstances, I think it may be set down as a rule that in the vast majority of combinations at issue the loser's name comes first." "I think so myself, Sarah," ventured Mr. Smith, with extreme modesty of demeanor. "Indeed," she rather sneered than otherwise, "have you been reading up on the subject?" "Some, Sarah," he answered, as he handed her a faded little newspaper clipping which he had taken from his pocketbook. Mrs. Smith read only this much and quit: "Smith—Jones. At the residence of the bride's parents—"

FORM A NEW GUARD AFTER MUSTER OUT

THE ADJUTANT GENERAL HAS PLANS ON HAND.

Former Members of the Guard to Be Shown Preference—Government Will Be Asked to Restore Springfield to the Troops—Companies to Be Larger.

Plans for the reorganization of the National Guard are now being perfected. Adjutant General Boardman says the work will be done as fast as the First, Second and Third Wisconsin volunteers are mustered out of service. The First will probably be reorganized early in November, the Second some time in December and the Third regiment, which has just been ordered home from Porto Rico, will probably not be reorganized into state troops before next February, because the regiment will not be mustered out until January.

"Our plans have not all been fixed," said the general, "but we propose to reorganize as soon as possible. It will be necessary to first have the regiments mustered out of the United States service, of course, before we can reorganize as National guard, but as I understand it the First regiment will be mustered out about October 19, and we can then begin work at once. As soon as the Second and Third have been mustered out we will have those regiments back into the state service.

Companies to Be Larger
"The National guard will again be organized under the present state law, making sixty-eight men to a company. There will be four regiments in the state, as there were before the war with Spain. We propose to issue a letter asking all the old companies to reenter the service, and all the former men who belonged to the guard will have an opportunity to come back, if they desire. The companies as they are now have the strength of 108 men, but as many will not want to join the National guard we will be able to make up companies as the law now provides with sixty eight men and still not crowd anybody out of the service. When we get ready for the work, we will call a meeting of the various companies, prepare lists and when the companies have been organized we will form the regiments.

State To Buy Supplies
"As for equipping the guards, the state will have to buy a lot of new clothing, but we hope to be able to arrange with the government for the equipping the soldiers. The guard will probably be given the Springfield rifle, if we can get the government to furnish them. In that we anticipate no trouble."

There is some question just now how many of the members now in the volunteer army will rejoin the national guard. While in active service, many of the boys said that they would go back into the national guard, but since many have changed their minds, and it is not improbable that a very large percentage of the former members will be in the newly organized regiments.

A $20,000 Money-Saving Sale of Clothing.
$20,000 worth of Henry W. King & Co. new fall stock has been turned over to us at 50 cents on the dollar. This is brought about by the retirement from the wholesale clothing business of Henry W. King & Co. due to the death of the senior partner. We have sold Henry W. King & Co. goods for twenty-five years and have yet to hear the first complaint. The goods we have just received are the pick of the market and at the prices we shall make will be the clothing bargains of the year. The sale opens Wednesday, October 12. Quick buying will be the rule at the prices we make. T. J. Ziegler.

IN MEMORY OF JUDGE PHELPS

Grand Army Comrades Pass Resolutions of Regard and Condolence.

At a meeting of W. H. Sargent Post No. 21, Grand Army of the Republic, held October 7, 1898, a committee was appointed to prepare resolutions of respect to the memory of the late Judge M. M. Phelps. The committee promulgated the following:

Whereas it has pleased our Great Commander to remove from the busy scenes of active life in the height of his usefulness to the quiet peaceful life beyond; our beloved comrade, the late Judge M. M. Phelps; Therefore:

Resolved, That in the sudden and seeming untimely death of Comrade Phelps, the community has lost an honest, upright and able judge and a highly esteemed citizen, the Grand Army of the Republic a member to whose record we point with pride, not only as a soldier but as a citizen, and whose noble virtues and sterling qualities as a man we strive to emulate.

Resolved, That we extend to the afflicted and aged parents and to the sorrowing daughter of our deceased comrade our tenderest sympathy in this their sad bereavement.

Resolved, That a copy of these resolutions be sent to the family of the deceased and that they be published in the city papers and copied in the record of the proceedings of the post.

STREET CARS KILL HOLLOWAY'S HORSE

DRIVER NARROWLY ESCAPES INJURY.

Both He and the Motorman Say the Other Is to Blame—Crash Took Place This Morning On Main Street Near Oakland Avenue—Horse Died In His Tracks.

A blunder on the part of either a careless driver or motorman resulted this morning in the death of a valuable horse, the wrecking of a vehicle and the miraculous escape of two men from death.

Street car No. 7 in charge of William Murphy, crashed into a horse and vehicle at 6:35 o'clock this morning on South Main street near Oakland avenue.

The car landed with terrific force, square into the horse knocking it several feet and breaking nearly every bone in its body. The animal after suffering several minutes died on the spot as the result of its injuries.

Escaped Uninjured

Don Holloway, son of Le Roy F. Holloway, was driving the horse at the time, and luckily escaped without even a scratch. The vehicle in which he was seated was partly wrecked. Mr. Murphy who was in charge of the car, was thrown his full length back into the car, escaping with a few bruises. According to his story the Holloway boy was to blame for the accident.

"The car was coming up Main street at the rate of about ten miles an hour," said Mr. Murphy, "and coming down the street was the vehicle driven by the Holloway boy. I noticed that his lines were loose, and that just before he reached the car he stooped forward and picked them up. They were crossed at the time, and in suddenly pulling on one of them he pulled the horse square on the track instead of on the right side of the road. I then put on the brake, but it was too late. The car struck the horse, and after knocking it down climbed on top of its body, crushing its very life out and throwing the car from the track."

The Other Side.

Don Holloway, the driver, says that Mr. Murphy was to blame, and that he was obliged to keep near the track on account of another team that was on the wrong side of the road coming up the street. He says that the car was coming along at the rate of about twenty miles an hour, and that the motorman stood at his post of duty with his hands in his pockets. At any rate a valuable horse was killed through the blundering mistake of either the driver or the motorman.

Mr. Murphy is employed by the street car company as night engineer.

Mr. Holloway has for several months past had charge of gasoline lamps about the city, and was attending to his work this morning when the accident took place.

Birds Generally Can Fly 400 Miles the Second Season.

Pigeons are carefully trained. The young homer is taken half a mile the first day, a mile the second, two miles the third and so on, doubling the distance each time. It must be liberated each time only in the same direction as to its loft, for a bird can be trained along only one route at a time. When forty miles have been reached a week's rest comes between. A hundred miles are enough for a young bird's first year.

So essential is the training that old birds are taken only two miles out for the first lesson of a season, though they may have flown their 250 miles the year preceding. The end of the next season, however, will, if the birds are willing and the trainer patient, be crowned by the accomplishment of a 400-mile flight. As you get higher in the scale of distance longer and longer rests are needed. Male birds are generally used for long distances; family matters are apt to engross the attention of the hen, though she is still capable of good work when she has a mind for it. Pigeon racing as a form of sport stands almost by itself. All the emulation is between the owners; the birds are quite unconscious that they are competing, their only motive in putting forth their powers being to get home as quickly as possible. There is no common goal; the winners are the birds which reach their lofts in the shortest time. All the birds, having been stamped on the wing with the race number known only to the starters, are liberated, say, at Bordeaux. Their owners this side of the channel watch patiently for their return. By a simple contrivance the bird on entering the loft on its arrival is prevented from getting out again. This enables the owner to capture it at once and he forthwith dispatches a telegram to the club center giving the race mark and stating the exact time at which the bird reached home. An allowance is made for the time taken in getting to

ABYSSINIAN TROOPS.

They Are Tough and Sturdy and Never Wash Themselves.

The Abyssinian soldier's ordinary dress is not very attractive. It consists of a white linen shirt down to his knees and a pair of tight linen trousers to half way down his calf. Over this he wears a belt of folded linen, and, as a rule, a "shamma," or white cotton sheet, draped around him. None of these garments is ever washed, so that they rapidly assume a dingy brown hue, and as no native ever washes himself and his only toilet consists in rubbing butter into his hair once a fortnight, the aroma from a large body of men is not precisely pleasing. No shoes, stockings or head coverings are worn. The officers and all who can afford it wear a shamma with a broad red stripe, called a "janna," and on high days and festive occasions all varieties of clothes are produced, of all colors of the rainbow. Cloaks of blue, red, green, yellow or violet, ornamented with rough embroidery, leopard skins, sheep skins, and even lion skins are worn on such days by the officers and small chiefs, and on these occasions the army presents a noble show. Any man who has killed a lion or an elephant, or has distinguished himself much in battle, wears an aureole of lion's mane on his head, and for each five men he has killed he wears a silver band on his sword scabbard. The highest recompense for valor is a sort of velvet top hat ornamented with silver, and great officers are given shields covered with velvet and ornamented with gold or silver. These swords are worn on right-hand side and are very much curved, almost sickle-shaped, and sharpened on both edges. These are used for everything from killing people down to cutting off mouthfuls of beefsteak. The rifles of every sort of single-loader (except Martini-Henrys) and a great many repeating rifles were taken from the Italians at the battle of Adowa in 1896; but, as far as we could find out, their musketry would be improved considerably by a bit of regular target practice.

SETTLEMENTS FOR WOMEN

English Woman to Add to Their Incomes by Selling Eggs, Etc.

An important experiment will shortly be made in England, with the object of forming settlements of women in different parts of the country for the cultivation of the land, and thus enabling them to add to their incomes, by the sale of fruits, flowers, vegetables, poultry, eggs, honey, etc. The idea was started by the countess of Warwick, and an institution will be opened in connection with Reading college in October, where they may be trained specially for the work. It will be founded for the definite purpose of enabling women over the age of 16 to obtain a thorough training (theoretical and practical) in the lighter branches of agriculture, viz: Flower and fruit growing, and packing for market, especially bush fruit, tomatoes, mushrooms, etc., bee and poultry keeping and dairy work. The council of Reading college has consented to provide the necessary courses of instruction and to recognize the countess of Warwick's hostel as a place of residence for women students. The full course of instruction will extend over two years, but those who wish to do so may join the short courses and special classes. It is hoped that the inclusive fees for instruction and board will not exceed $250 a year.

ALBANY STRIKERS RETURN TO WORK

LOCAL HANDS HAVE BEEN DISAPPOINTED.

Will Not Be Needed Now That the Strikers Have Decided to Return—Scale of Wages As Set By the Company Will Be Paid—Manager Van Aisdale Here This Morning.

Manager Van Aisdale, of the Albany linen mills, was in the city today and reports that the strikers returned to work this morning at the scale of wages set by the company. Many of those from this city who were promised work there, and who were to have left this week to fill the strikers' places, will be disappointed.

Manager Van Aisdale stated this morning that he preferred taking back the strikers to new hands for the reason that they understood the work and would not need any teaching.

The Wage Scale

The scale of wages which will be paid will be the same that the company set, and which the strikers a few days ago refused to work for, claiming that they were not even living wages.

"In reference to those here in Jamesville that I spoke of about coming to Albany to work," said Manager Van Aisdale, "all I can say is that our contract was not binding, and that I will now be obliged to disappoint the majority of those whom I intended to hire from here. I much prefer the strikers for the reason that they are better acquainted with the handling of the machinery and are capable in every way. To take on a new force of hands would be to spend considerable time in teaching them, which causes delay and expense."

Several in this city who hired out to the Albany firm are anything but pleased over the way they have been treated. After promising them work the Albany firm now goes back on their word.

Charged With

"Mr. Van Aisdale, after getting all the help he wanted in this city, lost no time in getting right back to Albany, where he made the fact known to the strikers," said an interested party this morning who had been promised a job. "The strikers are a poor set of people and as they saw plenty of others looking for work they thought best to return at the low scale set by the company rather than starve. Where we made one big mistake was when we ever offered to take the strikers' places."

You can just as well save 5 cents per pound on your baking powder. Richelieu powder is pure cream tartar, better than any other high grade powders and sells at 35c per pound. Sanborn.

FLEE FROM YELLOW FEVER.

Mississippi Towns Rapidly Being Depopulated.

SCOURGE IS NOW GENERAL.

Two Thousand Citizens Have Left Their Homes and Business to Escape the Dread Disease—Much Suffering Among Those Left in Infected Towns.

Chicago, Oct. 10.—"There are two thousand Mississippians in Chicago today, refugees from the yellow-fever scourged sections," said M. F. Jumper of Water Valley, Miss., who arrived with his family yesterday. Mr. Jumper is a prominent railway man of the operating department of the Illinois Central railway.

"Half the larger towns of the state have been or are being practically depopulated of the better class of whites," was the statement made by James A. Webb, secretary of the state board of railway commissioners for Mississippi. "The worst of it all," added Mr. Webb, "is the begonia has only commenced, for the yellow fever has just begun to become general. Three days ago even there were hopes of arresting the scourge, but that hope is now abandoned. All that can be done now is to check its mad career by depopulating the towns and placing a cordon around them against outsiders."

Mr. Webb had this to say:

"The condition of the poor white people and the blacks in the infected town is truly deplorable. The cotton-raisers and farmers have quarantined against all outside their own localities, and the merchants and other employers of the poorer people have left."

"Through Gov. McLaurin the Hudson Society made a direct appeal to President McKinley for rations for the thousands of starving people in the stricken cities of Mississippi and for coats and medicines for the sick. Cots, tents and provisions and some money have come from Memphis, St. Louis and other points, but the aid received is far short of the needs."

"Mississippi and the whole south appeal to the good people everywhere to aid in succoring their suffering thousands. Their suffering cannot be appreciated by those who have not witnessed the distress attending the yellow-fever scourge. No one is permitted to enter or leave once the cordon is drawn except where nurses or physicians enter, and then only to leave for another infected locality under honor."

THREE MORE TOWNS STRICKEN.

Yellow Fever Invades a Hitherto Uninfected Portion of Mississippi. Jackson, Miss., Oct. 10.—Three new towns hoisted the yellow flag Sunday, each in a separate county. The newly infected towns are Hattiesburg, Perry county, with fourteen cases; Poplarville, Pearl River county, with two cases; Lumberton, Marion county, with two cases. These towns are all in southeastern Mississippi, a part of the state hitherto uninfected. They are in the heart of the great pine region. Four railroads inside the state have now closed down. Seven new cases were reported here Sunday, three white and four colored. The total cases here to date are fifty and the total deaths four.

Fever Scare Hurts Railroads.

New Orleans, La., Oct. 10.—It is estimated that the Illinois Central railroad is losing $15,000 a day on its southern business as a result of the stringent yellow-fever quarantine. It has completely tied up the Yazoo & Mississippi Valley division and has badly hampered all traffic on the main line, taking off all the passenger trains except the double through vestibule service. The effect upon the railroads is a more serious question than the fever itself, which is of a very mild type.

Mob Burns a Sick Man.

Jackson, Miss., Oct. 10.—Dr. J. B. Harrison, health officer of Tallahatchie county, reports that at Phillips, Leflore county, a mob of frightened natives burned a dying white man in a negro church, where he had taken refuge. The victim was a tramp, and had yellow fever.

Yellow Fever in Wisconsin.

Sheboygan, Wis., Oct. 10.—Private Phillip Krumenauer of Company C, who came home from Porto Rico with the Second Regiment, is sick in St. Nicholas Hospital, and the doctors pronounce the disease yellow fever.

MARCHAND MUST LEAVE.

Salisbury Said to Have Sent Ultimatum to France. New York, Oct. 10.—The World's London correspondent declares that Lord Salisbury has sent an ultimatum to Paris giving France twenty-four hours to order Major Marchand out of Fashoda.

Flowers for Parnell's Grave.

Dublin, Oct. 10.—Most of the citizens of Dublin wore the ivy leaf Sunday, it being the anniversary of the death of Charles Stewart Parnell. Thousands participated in the ceremonies at Glasnevin cemetery, the lord mayor and corporation and delegates from the municipalities and all the chief towns in Ireland, in full regalia, taking part in the procession. This was headed by a floral car bearing a bust of Parnell.

QUEEREST HOUSE IN ENGLAND

It Is Triangular in Shape and Typifies the Trinity.

The most peculiar house in the United Kingdom is a small triangular building erected about 300 years ago at Rushton, in Northamptonshire, by Sir Thomas Tresham, a fervent Roman Catholic, who is supposed to have wished by his design to typify the Trinity. The house is all three, each of its three sides being exactly 33 feet 4 inches—that is, 33 1-3 feet in length. There are three stories, each has three windows on each of the three sides, and each of the windows in two of the three stories is in the shape of a trefoil—the three-leaved shamrock. The panes of glass are all triangles, or three-sided. In each of the other windows there are twelve panes of glass, in three fours. There are three gables on each side rising from the eaves, and from the center, where the roofs meet, rises a three-sided chimney, surmounted by a three-sided pyramid, terminating in a large trefoil. The smoke escapes from this chimney by three round holes on each of the three sides. On the top of each gable is a three-sided pyramid covered with a trefoil. The building is also covered with inscriptions and carvings. Three Latin inscriptions, one on each of the three sides, have thirty-three letters in each. Three angles on each side bear shields. Over the door is a Latin inscription of three words, meaning, "There are three that bear record." Inside the house each corner is cut off from each of the three main rooms, so that on each floor there are three three-sided apartments.

Havana's First Garrison.

Havana, Oct. 10.—Havana will get its first garrison of American troops by way of Mariel. Four regiments, two of cavalry and two of infantry, will bivouac on the hills near Guanajay until Havana begins to be emptied of Spanish troops. No American troops will be disembarked in Havana harbor or permitted to enter the city until the Spanish evacuation is practically complete. It is likely that even then Morro and Cabana will not be garrisoned, the soldiers camping instead in the public squares of the city. Two regiments would suffice to keep order, and there is room in the parks for five.

The Saxton Murder Mystery.

Canton, O., Oct. 10.—The mystery about the murder of George D. Saxton, brother of Mrs. McKinley, deepens. The alibi theory that a man dressed as a woman fired the fatal shots has grown stronger, while not one scintilla of evidence has been added to the circumstances which indicate that Mrs. Anna George killed Mr. Saxton. Sunday evening there arrived through the mail a postal card dated and postmarked Springfield, O. It read as follows: "Chief of Police, Canton, O.: I killed George Saxton. I am glad of it. Catch me if you can. X. Y. Z."

Chicago Express Is Wrecked.

Martinsburg, W. Va., Oct. 10.—Sunday morning the east-bound Chicago express, No. 8, on the Baltimore & Ohio railroad, struck a helper engine at Opequon, a target station two miles east of this city, causing a fatal wreck. Engineer John C. Senseny was killed instantly. Engineer Lockhart and Fireman Cutshaw, both of Baltimore, of the passenger train, were thrown from their engine, but escaped with slight injuries.

Wheat in New South Wales.

Vancouver, B. C., Oct. 10.—Austrian advisers brought by the steamer Warrimoo are as follows: "The corn section of the New South Wales chamber of commerce estimates that the coming season will produce a yield of 15,000,000 bushels of wheat, of which 10,000,000 bushels will be required for home consumption, leaving 5,000,000 bushels, or, roughly speaking, 100,000 tons of wheat to be exported."

Lives Lost in a Hotel Fire.

Sioux City, Iowa, Oct. 10.—The Hotel Grand and the Leeds creamery plant at Leeds, an outlying suburb, burned at 2 o'clock Sunday morning. Two men died in the hotel. They registered late; no one noticed their names and all other means of identifying them were obliterated by the fire. The hotel was owned by M. J. Glenn and worth about $4,000, and the creamery by Frank J. Glenn, worth $20,000. Neither was insured.

OMAHA'S PLANS TO ENTERTAIN

Details of the Reception of President McKinley and His Party.

Omaha, Neb., Oct. 10.—Preparations for the reception of President McKinley are complete. The train of the president is scheduled to leave Clinton, Iowa, at 11:20 a. m., Tuesday, and a run of nine hours will be made from Clinton to Omaha.

The party will be met at the depot by the Knights of Ak-Sar-Ben, who will act as a mounted escort. It will then be conducted to the city hall, when the spectacular parade of King Ak-Sar-Ben IV. will be reviewed, and thence to the Omaha club. Wednesday morning the visitors will leave the club at 10 o'clock with the same escort and be conducted to the Grand plaza, where the exercises of the day will take place.

After the speaking the official party will be entertained at lunch by the reception committee, and the women of the party will return in carriages to the Omaha club, where a luncheon will be tendered to Mrs. McKinley. The president and his party will go to the government building at 3 o'clock, where a handshaking reception will occur for half an hour, and then they will be rejoined by the women, and the entire party will be taken in carriage to see the sham battle at 4 o'clock and the balloon ascension at 5. There will be a dinner at 6 o'clock.

CONSULTING A WOMAN.

Mrs. Pinkham's Advice Inspires Confidence and Hope.

Examination by a male physician is a hard trial to a delicately organized woman. She puts it off as long as she dare, and is only driven to it by fear of cancer, polypus, or some dreadful ill.

Most frequently such a woman leaves a physician's office where she has undergone a critical examination with an impression, more or less, of discouragement.

This condition of the mind destroys the effect of advice; and she grows worse rather than better. In consulting Mrs. Pinkham no hesitation need be felt, the story is told to a woman and is wholly confidential. Mrs. Pinkham's address is Lynn, Mass., she offers sick women her advice without charge.

Her intimate knowledge of women's troubles makes her letter of advice a wellspring of hope, and her wide experience and skill point the way to health.

"I suffered with ovarian trouble for seven years, and no doctor knew what was the matter with me. I had spells which would last for two days or more. I thought I would try Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound. I have taken seven bottles of it, and am entirely cured."—Mrs. JOHN FOREMAN, 26 N. Woodberry Ave., Baltimore, Md.

The above letter from Mrs. Foreman is only one of thousands.

Buggies That Live Long.

No one ever saw a buggy that wouldn't wear out sometime, but the Taylor Buggies have as long a life as any rig manufactured. Some people say that a Taylor rig will outwear three ordinary makes.

People who have used the Taylor rig say they would never ride in any other make. Of course people's opinions differ. Some people who know nothing about Taylor Buggies might say that they would prefer some other make.

A Janesville gentleman said a few days ago that he had ridden in Taylor rigs for the past six years and would never use any other. They are easy riding, very comfortable and will wear like iron.

A good many people have said the same thing about the Taylor Buggies. We know somebody is saying good things about our rigs because we are getting new customers every day.

SPAIN'S HOPE IS DYING.

Sagasta Sees Philippines Can Not Be Retained.

FRANCE WILL MAKE NO MOVE.

Appeal Made by the Spanish Government Is Courteously but Most Positively Denied—Indications That America Will Take Entire Archipelago.

Madrid, Oct. 10.—Sagasta is at last becoming reconciled to the eventual loss of the Philippines, although it is a most bitter disappointment to the queen regent and the cabinet, for until Wednesday the secret hope had been cherished by the premier that Spanish diplomacy might prevail upon France, Germany and other powers to exert their influence to withdraw the final settlement of the Philippine question from the Paris commission and refer it to an international conference—that is, in case the United States should insist upon anything more in the archipelago than a port and a coaling station.

These hopes have now vanished, for it is stated on good authority that the French foreign office, being sounded on the subject, expressed most courteous and genuine sympathy, but declined to hold out a single word of promise or encouragement.

It is now beginning to be realized in ministerial circles here that the French government, aware of the intention of Spain ultimately to dispose of whatever can be saved from the Philippine wreck to the highest cash bidder, would rather see the whole archipelago annexed outright by the United States than have it remain a bone of contention, with the likelihood of its being some day transferred to Germany.

Such, at least, is the present situation, subject, of course, to modifications when the American demands are actually known in detail.

As far as can be ascertained no interchange of views has taken place here between the cabinets of Madrid and Berlin with a view to reinforcing the Philippine question to an international conference, so that any threats of being able to achieve such a diplomatic victory may be regarded as pure bluff.

Sick Soldiers Coming Home.

Camp Cuba Libre, Jacksonville, Fla., Oct. 10.—A hospital train consisting of Pullman cars left the Second division hospital Sunday with 200 patients for Cincinnati, where they will be treated until able to travel to their respective homes on furloughs to recuperate. Each man was supplied with all of his clothing, etc., and all government property was turned in to the company commanders. This indicates that the sick are not expected to return to their commands here. About fifty of those sent belong to the Second Illinois.

Col. Andel Returned to Duty.

Washington, Oct. 10.—Col. Andel of the Fourth Illinois volunteers will be returned to active duty at once and be given the full pay of his rank. This decision was reached Saturday by the president at the request of Col. Wm. H. Morrison and Gustave A. Koerner of Belleville, Ill. Col. Andel was tried by court-martial and convicted on the charge of permitting forage to be drawn for a chaplain's horse, whereas the chaplain of his regiment did not possess a beast of burden.

Troops Sail for San Juan.

Washington, Oct. 10.—Adj. Gen. Corbin Sunday evening received the following telegram from Col. Tyson, commanding the Sixth United States immunes:

"Brooklyn, N. Y., Oct. 9.—Adjutant General, Washington: Telegram directing me to proceed to San Juan, Porto Rico, received. Leave today 4 p. m. 770 men, 28 officers, on board transport steamship Mississippi.

TYSON, Colonel."

Trying to Delay Evacuation.

London, Oct. 10.—The Standard's Madrid correspondent says that the Spanish government is endeavoring through French diplomacy at Washington and the peace commission in Paris to induce the United States not to insist upon the rapid evacuation of Cuba on the ground that it would be very costly.

Spain Is Uneasy.

London, Oct. 10.—The Madrid correspondent of the Times says: "Although nothing concrete is known it is the prevailing opinion here that the Paris negotiations are not proceeding with the smoothness that is desirable. The government, it is understood, shares this opinion."

Wood Takes Lawton's Place.

Santiago de Cuba, Oct. 10.—General Leonard Wood has been officially assigned to the command of the Department of Santiago by a special order of the war department. He will retain the commission during the absence of Gen. Lawton, who has been given two months' sick leave.

NEW TRAITS FOR OLD FAVORITE

Our Fondness for Certain Old Classics Hypocritical.

Much of our veneration for the classics is a sham, due, in a measure, to our sheep-like unwillingness to think for ourselves. Follow my leader: is the game most of us play when we are called upon to declare our preferences. We put "Tom Jones," for example, into our lists of the "hundred best books"—lists, for the most part, as fatuous as they are absurd—but if we were honest with ourselves, as I suppose we should be if the choice were actual, very few of us would pack "Tom Jones" in the chest we express to the mythical desolate island. There is no doubt that "Tom Jones" is a great novel, one of the greatest in our language, and perhaps one of the greatest in modern literature of any country. It has form and substance; it is admirably planned and beautifully written; it abounds in humor and in irony and in knowledge of human nature; it is peopled by a company of living men and women, each of them firm on his or her feet; it reveals to us a most manly character, the character of Henry Fielding himself—sturdy, honest and sincere, clear-eyed and plain-spoken. The book is eternal in its verity, and, therefore, in its interest; but it has the remote morality of the eighteenth century, and the hardness of tone of that unlovely era; it belongs to an earlier stage in the development of fiction; it demands for its full enjoyment a certain measure of culture in its readers; and, therefore, it is becoming, year by year, more and more a novel for the few, and less and less a novel for the many. As with "Tom Jones" so with "Don Quixote"—a greater book, making a wider appeal, and not bounded by the horizon of a single century. The carelessness with which Cervantes put his story together, the fortuitous adventures and the incongruous meetings—these things are of little consequence; for, as George Sand aptly put it, "the best books are not those with the fewest faults, but those with the greatest merits."

No Grit in the Sick

Grit is a grand thing and pulls a man through many a difficulty. But there is no grit in the sick. The debilitated, and sufferers from nervous prostration, those permanently subject to gloom and depression know that with the loss of vigor and vitality grit goes with them. Sometimes, however, courage is infused into the sick by good news that should bring back hope and courage. Dr. Greene, 148 State street, Chicago, Ill., the noted and successful specialist who cures so many of the worst cases of weakness and loss of vigor offers to give advice by mail, free, to all who write to him. Here is a rare opportunity to get back health. Write to Dr. Greene today.

ARE SHORT OF HOPS.

English Brewers Experience a Great Scarcity.

A London newspaper says: "The first pocket of hops has arrived in the borough and, according to the recipients, a large firm well known in the trade, Sir Reginald Guinness' optimistic references to the hop harvest are totally mistaken, the prospect being gloomy for brewers and beer drinkers—tasteful do not come with this firm. The rock ahead is the greatest scarcity of hops ever known. Last year this country raised 423,000 hundredweight; this year it is expected to produce 350,000 hundredweight. Our brewers, yeast-makers and manufacturers of tectotal beverages use about 800,000 hundredweight a year; they will therefore have to look to foreigners for 450,000 hundredweight. But the foreigner has never sent us more than 250,000 hundredweight, and, owing to the blight in northern France, Belgium, Holland and north Germany, is not likely to repeat that record this year. Perhaps 75,000 hundredweight of old hops may be raked up, but the deficiency will still be very great."

GRACEFUL WALK.

French Woman Gives Us Some Good Advice.

To be thoroughly graceful, long steps and quick, short steps should be equally avoided, remarks a Frenchwoman. A stiff walk is also very ungraceful, and that is the great fault of English girls. They walk too stiffly and take too long strides. Spanish women have a very pretty walk naturally, as also have Italian country girls and all accustomed to carry weights on their heads. To exercise walking a weight on the head is a very good lesson. You must not be content, however, to walk straight before you without letting the weight fall from your head. You must turn backward and forward and from side to side, as Italian country girls do when they carry their water jars on the well, and can turn in all directions without a drop of water being spilled from the jar on the head. More marriages are made up at the well in Italy than at any other public place. Young rustic fellows stand by the well to watch the girls fill their jars and carry them away on their heads with a grace given only to them, and the most graceful among them has the most admirers from whom to choose her husband. The French are also very graceful walkers. Study your walk, girls. Take dancing lessons to begin with, and then repeat your lessons before your long toilet glass. A pretty walk is a beauty in itself, and everyone who will can acquire this beauty. Do it, then, at once—now—without losing another day.

KNIT A BATH TOWEL.

A Useful Article Which Any Girl Can Easily Make.

A knitted bath towel is an uncommon sort of work to be engaged upon, and a little girl who recently made one thought it would make a useful holiday gift. As a child can easily learn the stitch it can readily be seen that the work would not be in any way difficult. For a large towel, says the Boston Herald, four balls of No. 6 unbleached cotton will be needed. The small size of white bone needles should be used. Cast on 128 stitches. From beginning to the end knit plain the first three and last three of every needle, so as to make a selvage. Knit the ends in any way that may be fancied. For instance, seven rows of plain knitting and seven rows of holes. To make the holes, knit two stitches together and put the thread over; then two together, and put the thread over across the needle, and in returning knit every stitch, the thread over the needle counting as a stitch. Then knit another plain space of seven rows, with three rows of holes, then a plain space of three rows and then begin the towel center. After the three selvage stitches knit two plain, two seam, two plain, two seam, across the needle, ending with the selvage, and knit back in precisely the same order. The next time (which is the third) reverse the order, knitting two seam, two plain, two seam two plain, across the needle, knitting back in the same order. The whole center of the towel is a repetition of these four times. The little squares of two make raised spots, which will remain if the towels are wrung lightly when washed. They should never be ironed. Make the end correspond with the first, and finish with a heavy fringe of cotton. Do not knit much at a time, as the towel becomes somewhat heavy before it is done, but it is pretty work and most satisfactory.

How to Temper Glass Globes.

The breaking of glass globes is very frequent, as all housekeepers know. Their durability may be greatly increased if they are tempered beforehand. This is done by putting them in a large pan, and covering them with cold water. The pan is then set on the range until the water boils. When that occurs it is removed from the fire, and the globes are allowed to remain in the water until it is perfectly cold again. This is a common treatment for lamp chimneys and is equally efficient in the case of glass globes.

SPEAK OUT

The Search Light of Publicity Is Pleasing Janesville People

Publicity is what the people want. Let the people speak on the subject. There has been too much claim, too little proof. Claims made by strangers is not proof. There is only one kind of proof for a Janesville citizen. That is the experience of people we know. When friends and neighbors endorse, make public statement of their case. There can be no question about such evidence. This is the convincing proof we have. Which backs every box of Doan's Kidney Pills: No other kidney pills, no other kidney remedy. Can produce such proof. Here is one case of the many we have: Mr. E. Dillenback, of 126 Milton Ave., retired farmer, says: "My wife was troubled with kidney complaint for four or five years, and complained of pains in the small of the back in the region of the kidneys. The symptoms indicated that the kidneys were deranged, and the doctors who treated her said that those organs caused the trouble. As she did not get any better we thought Doan's Kidney Pills might give her relief, and procuring them at the Janesville Co's. store, I had her use the remedy. It did for her all that could be expected and did her a great deal of good. We can recommend Doan's Kidney Pills and you can use our names as saying what has been stated above."

$20,000 WORTH OF CLOTHING IN A GREAT MONEY-SAVING SALE

Henry W. King & Co. New Fall Stock at Fifty Cents on the Dollar.

This money-saving sale is made possible by the retirement from the wholesale clothing business of the firm of Henry W. King & Co., of Chicago. The firm name suggests two things: the extent of the sale and the quality of the goods that will be offered. Henry W. King & Co. made just one line of goods—the best. We have sold their goods for twenty-five years. Not once in that time have we been disappointed in quality of goods, cut or workmanship. How many times can this be said of even the best custom tailoring? That it should be true of the Henry W. King & Co. goods is a remarkable testimonial to the honesty and ability that marked every detail of their work. The retirement of the firm from the wholesale clothing business is brought about by the death of Henry W. King. All of the Chicago stockholders are now out of the company and after closing out the affairs of the western wholesale house the business will be conducted by the eastern members of the firm—the Brownings—and nothing will be made except goods for the Browning, King & Co. retail stores.

Henry W. King & Co. had manufactured immense quantities of stylish, desirable, up-to-date goods for the fall and winter of 1898-99.

These goods are the pick of the market as the Henry W. King & Co. goods have always been. Regardless of price-estimates, however, the entire stock must be marketed in time for the adjustment of the affairs of the estate—January 1, 1899. In this emergency the recognized outputs of the factory were first considered, and from the immense line laid out in the Chicago show rooms we have selected $20,000 worth. Better clothing never came into the city. Material, style and workmanship—all three are right.

And the prices! At fifty cents on the dollar—in many cases at less than fifty cents on the dollar—we have bought this stock. As we bought it, so we shall sell it. Not a garment in the lot but is good enough, stylish enough, desirable enough to warrant holding regular prices. We should have no complaint from any customer were this done. But such a course would not clear out the immense line of Suits and Overcoats that is beginning to overflow our counters. The benefit we got in buying is to be passed on to our customers. A money-saving sale we call it and a money-saving sale it will be. Values will be just as we represent them. Henry W. King & Co. quality needs no eulogy. Nothing but business requirements brought about by the dissolution of partnership would have made such a sale possible. The opportunity that our trade connection with Henry W. King & Co. gives to Janesville clothing buyers will long be remembered.

The Sale begins Wednesday, Oct. 12—It will continue without limit until the goods are gone. Every few days a new line or new lot will be put on the counter. Those who come first will reap the benefit, for quick buying will be the rule at the prices we make. There is not an undesirable garment in the line but first selection is always an advantage and we recommend our friends to make early selection.

CLOTHES FOR THIS WINTER.

CLOTHES FOR NEXT SPRING.

CLOTHES FOR NEXT FALL.

CLOTHES FOR ANOTHER YEAR.

The prices we shall make on the $20,000 worth of high grade goods bought from Henry W. King & Co. will make advance buying appear the duty of every prudent man.
